DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "pressure and temperature relief device" recited in claims 1 and 3 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 2-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Claim 2 recites "a fabric pouch...impervious to moisture..." The specification, on page, paragraph 0006 alleges that the "frangible container is preferably a fabric pouch protected from mechanical damage and impervious to moisture..." The specification further teaches, page 2, paragraph 0011, the "external wall 25 of the pouch 40 is formed with perforations 27." The disclosure fails to teach how a fabric having perforations is impervious to moisture.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites an activation indicator for a pressure and temperature relief device. Claim 3 further recites the pouch being fluidly connected to the relief device. The preamble of claim 3 recites a subcombination of an activation indicator while the body of the claim defines a combination of an activation indicator and a pressure and temperature relief device.

The recitation "class ABC fires" in claim 5 renders the claim indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dunn (3,773,111).

Dunn discloses an activation indicator which includes a frangible container 50; a fire extinguishing powder 54; a pressure and temperature relief device 58.

8. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Williams (3,833,063).

Williams discloses an activation indicator which includes a frangible container 35; a fire extinguishing powder 37; a pressure and temperature relief device 25.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 5, 7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dunn (3,773,111).

Dunn discloses the claimed invention with the exception of the characteristics of the powder as claimed in claims 5, 7, and 8. Applicant discloses on page 2, paragraph 0010, "various powders sold under the FUREX name by Caldic Corporation of Rotterdam, the Netherlands." This is taken as admission that powders adapted for use on class ABC fires, having indelible dyes, and having odorous additive are known. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided FUREX powder to the device of Dunn for visual and odorous indication.
